A progress report can be both used individually or by businesses in evaluating its progress towards achieving their goals. Instead of just sitting down trying to think and analyse where you're currently at, you can make use of a progress report which has a structured method or way of looking at your progress towards your goals.

Two short tests for every unit (one for lessons A-C and one for lessons D-G), testing vocabulary, grammar, and everyday English Longer Progress Test for every unit, checking reading, listening, and writing skills Differently worded A and B tests, whilst examining the same core language, ensure that students are unable to copy from one another, making classroom management during tests easier for teachers Three Cumulative Tests to cover units 1-5, 6-10, and 1-10 Multiple choice-style Placement Test Typical exam-type tasks to help students prepare for school-leaving exams
