Fiction. Possibly the Northwest's first, full-fledged mock biography of a fictional CEO who created a coffee empire and sipped the soul out of a city. Authored by a twice removed hand, or, the truth laid bare through a series of fictions.

Baltimore, 1966. A twelve-year-old girl is about to discover that some monsters are real. Dara Burke's life is far from perfect. Her parents fight all the time, and her little brother Alvey is a royal pain. But none of that matters because it's summer! Now she and her best friend Fran can ride their ten-speeds, watch baseball, or just hang out. On the other side of town, Baltimore City patrolman Stan Gorsky looks forward to summer crab feasts and a cold bottle of Natty Boh. He likes his job and loves his family, and all seems right with the world. And then the first little boy dies, changing everything. More death and strange incidents follow. As Officer Gorsky frantically follows the trail of a merciless killer, a dark web tightens around Dara and Alvey. In this countdown to murder, can Dara save her brother . . . and herself?

A comedian and Dancing with the Stars contestant dubbed a "one man verbal assault unit" offers anecdotes and deconstructs the makings of a great roast--based on his own career as the Friars' Club Roastmaster General.
