In today's globalized society, an international exchange of ideas and views is indispensable within the field of social sciences, including criminology and criminal justice studies. The research group Governance of Security (GofS) fosters contemporary international discourses on issues of crime and crime control. In 2008, GofS started a research paper series, combining theoretical and empirical articles on issues reflecting the research activities of GofS. This research group is a collaboration between Ghent University and Ghent University College in Belgium. GofS concentrates its research around the study of administrative and judicial policy that have been developed with respect to new issues of crime and insecurity. The GofS series "Governance of Security Research Papers (GofS)" is published by Maklu Publishing (Belgium). Readings on Criminal Justice, Criminal Law and Policing "Volume 2 of GofS's series Governance of Security Research Papers" includes the following: Punishment across Borders: The Rationales behind International Execution of Sentences " Interpreting the Concept of 'Discretionary Power' within the Execution of Sentences: A Comparison between the Belgian and French Situation " Esperanto for EU Crime Statistics: Towards Common European Offense Definitions in an EU-level Offense Classification System " Developing a Framework for the Legal Rights of Victims and Witnesses " What Can European Institutions and the International Criminal Court Learn from Each Other?
