Your Book Might Suck... But it doesn't have to. You are an awesome writer with an incredible fiction story the world needs to experience. But your book... well, it kind of sucks. So let's fix that. Setting your novel apart from the rest is a choice. Fiction is more than a character doing stuff in a place you've invented. There are rules to magic and seasons to setting and double meanings to words, and a cadence to sentence structure if you want to write a book that doesn't suck. I guarantee you will find tricks and treats you've never heard or read before in any other writing book. If not, let me know and

I'll refund your money. But if I'm right, and my book helps you to write a novel that doesn't suck, then I'm asking you, in return to leave a positive review. That's fair, isn't it? Ready to get started? Great! There are questions with space to answer at the end of each chapter to help you along your journey. I'm super excited for you and wish you all the luck in writing your novel!

Each year, thousands of athletes work hard to excel at their sport, while sacrificing their time in hopes of one day playing professionally. Some make it but many do not. Most often we hear the stories of athletes that have succeeded. However there are many more untold stories of great athletes who did not. Brandon Sweeney shares his story of the setbacks he had to overcome when his dream of going to the NFL was shattered by a career ending injury. It was a long process of readjustment for Brandon but he ultimately discovers his true identity, and God-given purpose. Brandon wrote this book to motivate, inspire and challenge athletes to recognize the importance of preparing for life on and off the field, but ultimately to help others discover their full potential and their God-

These four nonfiction, high-interest writing prompts are designed to support third graders as they practice the writing process. The prompt topics promote writing based on real-world experiences. A suggested scoring rubric is included.

Is there an upside to cancer? There is if you're Joan Butman. In her latest collection of faith essays, I Don't Buy Green Bananas! (center stage with cancer), Joan takes on her biggest challenge yet: a cancer diagnosis. Facing a terminal illness hasn't dampened Joan's faith or her sense of humor. She takes us along on her "road trip with God," through her diagnosis, surgery, and recurrence of her "tribble"—the name she affectionately calls the tumor discovered in her abdomen. Throughout her journey, Joan learns the true meaning of the scripture "Do not be afraid, for I am with you," and experiences the peace and joy that come with accepting God's will: "I can say with confidence that you will find delight in anything you do for Christ, whether it be washing dishes, changing diapers, or battling cancer. When you get to know Jesus, He will give you a role in his show, even though there is no guarantee you won't be written out of the script."
