Attaining equality between women and men and eliminating all forms of discrimination against women are fundamental human rights and United Nations values. Women around the world nevertheless regularly suffer violations of their human rights throughout their life, and realizing women's human rights has not always been prioritized. Achieving equality between women and men requires a comprehensive understanding of the ways in which women experience discrimination and are denied equality so as to develop appropriate strategies to eliminate such discrimination. This publication provides an introduction to women's human rights, beginning with the main provisions in international human rights law and going on to explain particularly relevant concepts for fully understanding women's human rights.

Chinese edition of Notes Left Behind: 135 Days with Elena. Five-year-old Elena was diagnosed with brain tumor and died. But her spirit lives on with the notes she left behind in plethora places to remind her family how much she loved them. This was how she spent the last 9 months of her life. In Traditional Chinese.
